ABOUT

Edgewood College

Edgewood College, founded in 1927, is an independent liberal arts university, located in Madison, Wisconsin in the United States. Edgewood College is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, one of the seven accrediting commissions recognized by the Council of Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) - the premier authority on higher education in the U.S. Edgewood College offers more than 60 majors and 40 minors and several of its business programs are accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business School and Programs (ACBSP). Alumni of the university have gone on to successful careers in business, politics, law and more. For more than ninety years, the university has put students first in everything they do. Edgewood is now expanding globally, offering affordable, quality education to working professionals.
